The industry in which Lawsons Holdings and its subsidiaries operate has traditionally been perceived as a male environment. Due to the physical nature and contracted hours associated with some of our Job roles, it may mean they are more suited to a male employee, and although there are no barriers for females to enter those roles, in those areas the employment continues to be dominated by male employees.

Lawsons' aim has always been to pay a fair salary for each job role and attract a diverse range of employees in all roles. We continue to actively seek the right person each job regardless of gender. As part of our ongoing process to strive to fair, we are also an accredited Living Wage Employer.

We are exhibiting a negative Gender Pay Gap and attribute this to the split of job roles type, career choice and work life balance. The Bonus Gap – is attributed to the upper quartile being dominated by Male Employees.

Whilst we endeavour to recruit more females into both our branch network and Senior Roles in Branch Management, the fact remains that most of our female employees are employed in office-based support function roles, such as those in credit control or purchase ledger, whilst most of our male employees are based in our branch network, as Salespeople, operating in the yards, or driving our van and lorry fleet.

Lawsons make every effort to employ the right person for each role, regardless of gender. It is essential that we attract, retain, and further develop our employees, and build an inclusive working environment from a diverse talent pool, and to always employ the best person for each job.

Most importantly we keenly encourage our employee's ideas and contributions on how we can foster diversity and inclusivity in every aspect of our business. Our achievements thus far, are only the starting platform, on which we will continue to endorse further gender diversity through-out our company.
